

The Foundry

Charles Sullivan

Cambridge Historical Commission

July 12, 2017

U.S. Coast Survey,
1847
Water at mean high tide

THE NEW CAMBRIDGE BRIDGE, BOSTON, MASS.

[For description, see page 11.]

West Boston Bridge, 1855

Kendall Square in the distance

J.G. Chase, Map of Cambridge, 1865

DRAWN & PUBLISHED BY G. H. BAILEY & J. C. HAZEN, BOSTON.

— VIEW OF —
EAST CAMBRIDGE, MASS.

1879.

Map 21.4 Co. 1879

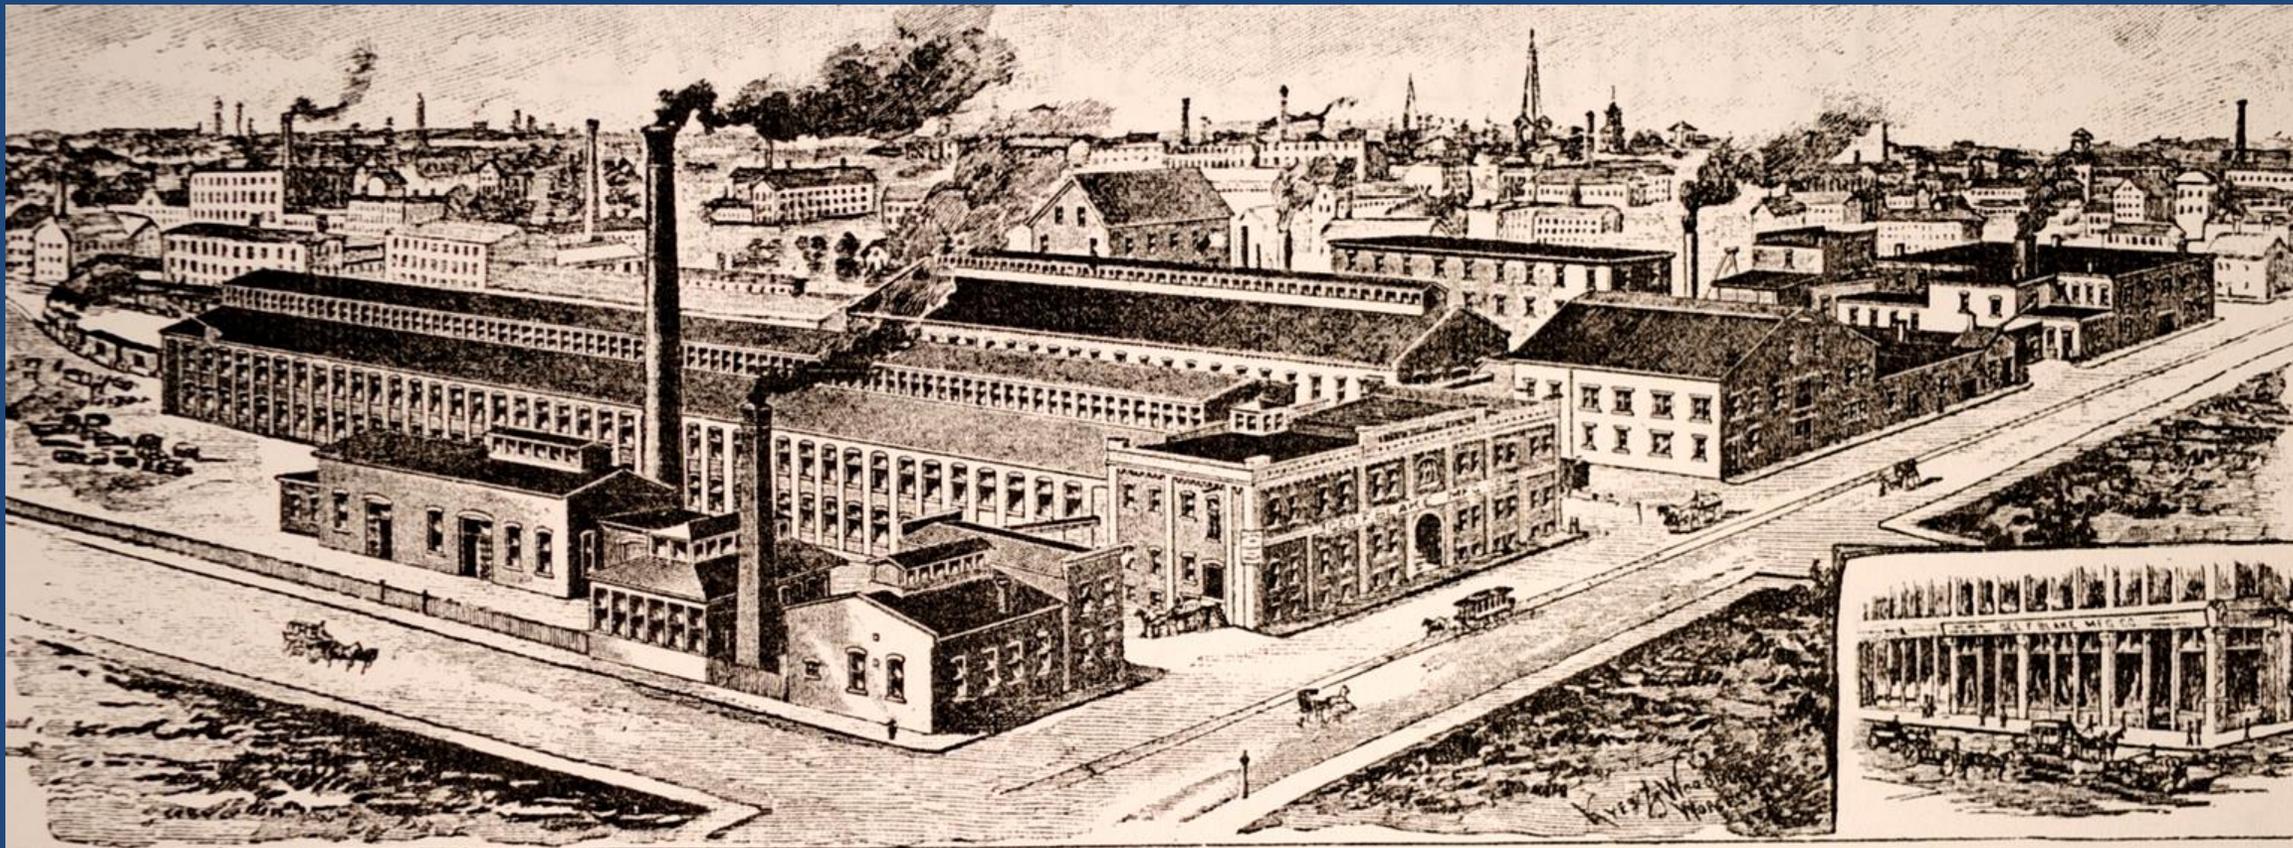

Lot 2000, 1878

24/4

20/4771

17/4

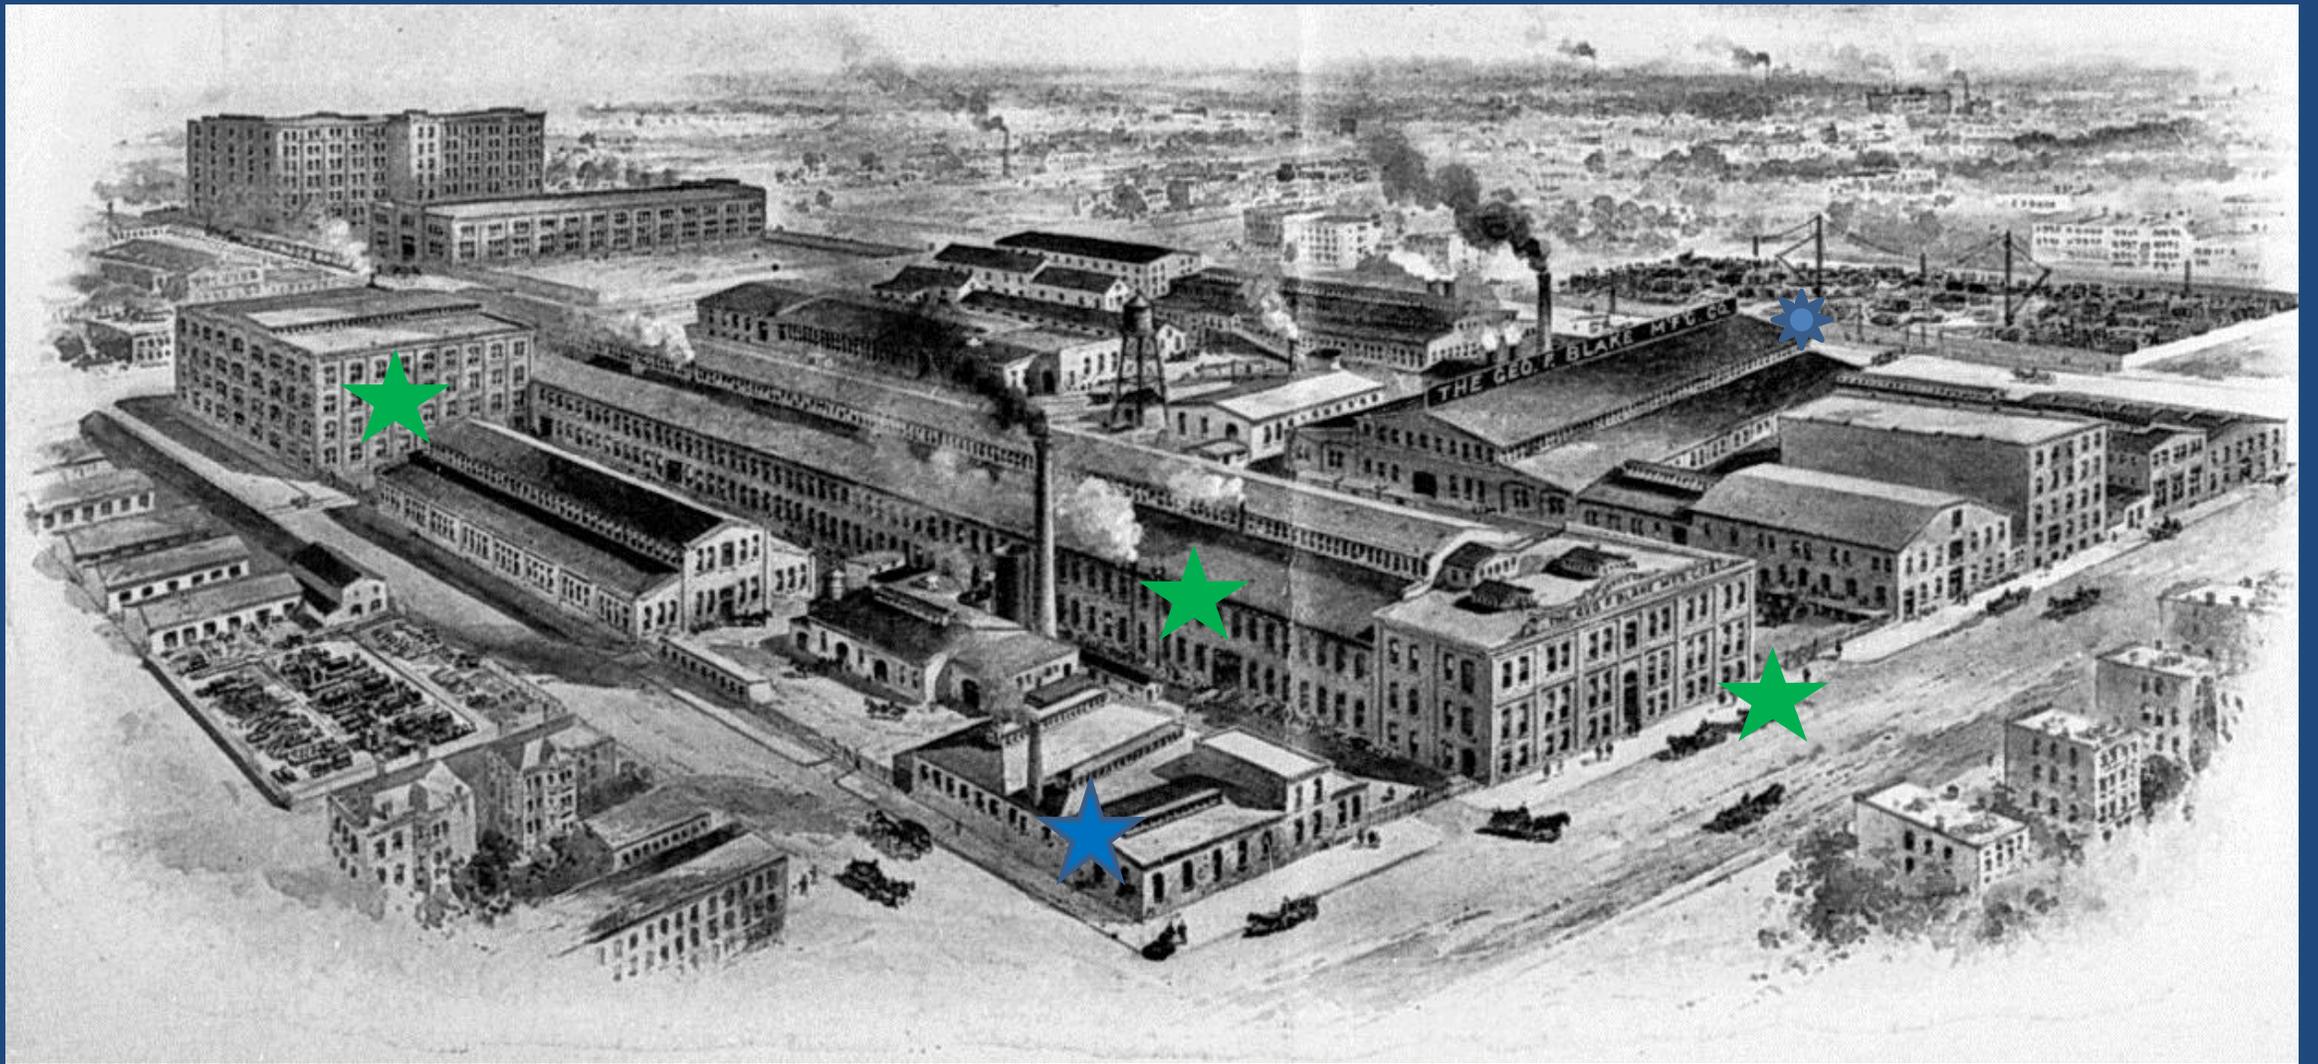

0774 021272 A7 1879 B35

Flynt Building by Construction Co., Architects & Builders, Valmer, Mass.

THE GEO. F. BLAKE MFG. CO.

George F. Blake Mfg. Co.,
corner Third and Binney Streets, ca. 1890

Blake & Knowles Steam Pump Works, ca. 1909

Existing building

Cambridge Landmark

Former Blake & Knowles brass foundry (ca. 1885),
cor. Third and Binney Streets

Fairchild Aerial Surveys, ca. 1926

Worthington Machine Co. buildings, Binney Street

THE FOUNDRY WORKS at 180 Bent Street, Cambridge, is undergoing a major renovation project. Howard Rockstrom Associates Inc. is the architectural firm for the project.

Cambridge Foundry set for major renovation

A major $2.1 million renovation project is under way on the old George F. Fryborg of Robert A. Jones, a creative, artful, practical office building," Wakeley also of Cambridge. continued. "As a result of the

Cambridge Chronicle
Sept. 16, 1982

The Foundry (1890, L.H. Gager, architect, as altered by Harold Rockstrom Associates, 1983)
South elevation

South and east elevations

East elevation

North elevation

Bent Street (north) elevation, ca. 1936

North and west elevations, showing removed portion of original building

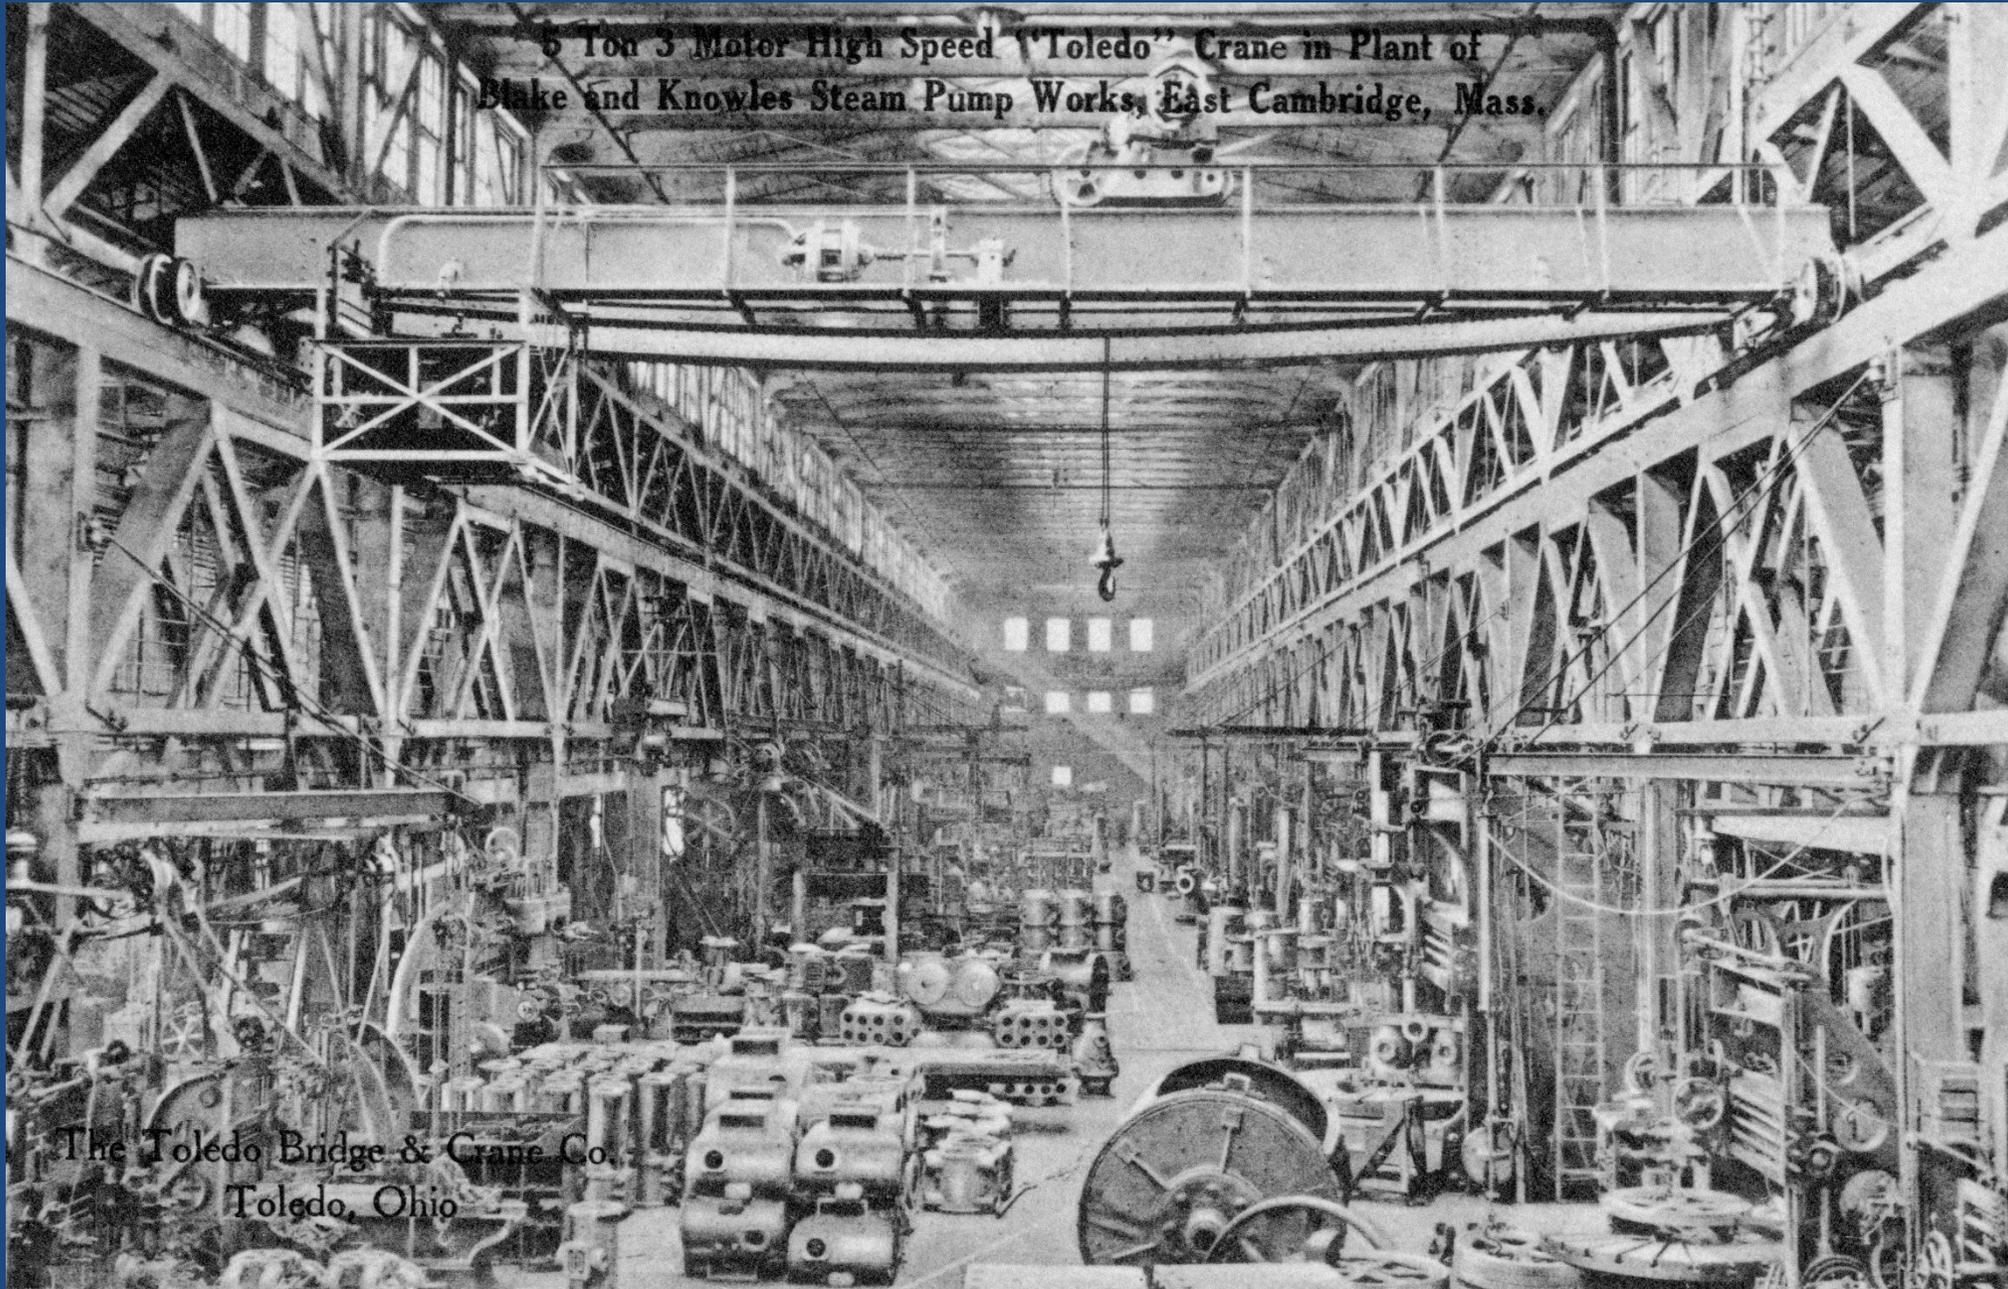

Second floor
Trusses to support
travelling crane

Second floor
Trusses to support
travelling crane

5 Ton 3 Motor High Speed "Toledo" Crane in Plant of Blake and Knowles Steam Pump Works, East Cambridge, Mass.

The Toledo Bridge & Crane Co.
Toledo, Ohio

Erecting Hall
with travelling
crane, ca. 1910

Third floor

Third floor
Knee braces at clerestory

